

The Motivational Code

- B - Believers see the possibilities of the future and often forget about the now.
- A - Achievers work great under stress but are often not great planners.
- C - Collaborators are true team player and feel that if the team fails they fail.
- O - Optimizers are more concerned with creating a better way than doing the job.
- N - Narcissists will score the touchdown and desire all the glory.
- S - Scholars need to learn everything before making a decision.
